- Why we fight / Mike Martin

London : Hurst & Co. (Publishers) Ltd., 2018.
xii, 311 pages ; 23 cm.

When we go to war, morality, religion and ideology often take the blame. But Mike Martin boldly argues that the opposite is true: rather than driving violence, these things help to reduce it. While we resort to ideas and values to justify or interpret warfare, something else is really propelling us towards conflict: our subconscious desires, shaped by millions of years of evolution.

- Women and gender perspective in the military : an international comparison / Robert Egnell and Mayesha Alam, editors.

Washington: Georgetown University Press, 2019.
xi, 278 pages : 23 cm.

This book brings a much needed cross-national analysis of how militaries have or have not improved gender balance, what has worked and what has not, and who have been the agents for change.
